The film chronicles the story of Kevin Hines, who at age 19 attempted to take his life by jumping from the Golden Gate Bridge. Since then Kevin has been on a mission to use his story to help others stay alive and find recovery.

FRIDAY MAY 3, 2019 | 6:30-8:30PM

The film chronicles Kevin's personal journey and the ripple effect it has on those who have been impacted by his suicide attempt and his life's work since. In addition, the film highlights the stories of individuals and families who are utilizing their personal tragedy to bring hope and healing to others.

This 2018 film is not rated. This event is in partnership with Ann Arbor Public Schools and the Washtenaw Alive Suicide Prevention Coalition. Discussion will follow.
